

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, September 14, 1980, marks the One Hundredth Birthday of Our Savior Lutheran Church In Flandreau, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, For One Hundred Years, Our Savior Lutheran Church has served as a spiritual refuge for the community; and,

WHEREAS, On September 14, 1980, the members of the Congregation of Our Savior Lutheran Church will be celebrating this landmark in the spiritual life of the community; and,

WHEREAS, the congregation and clergy of Our Savior Lutheran Church have been a strong moral force and source of spiritual strength for everyone in the Flandreau area for these 100 years; and,

WHEREAS, many of the family of John and Olive Gulbranson and their descendants have worshiped at Our Savior Lutheran Church for almost five decades; and,

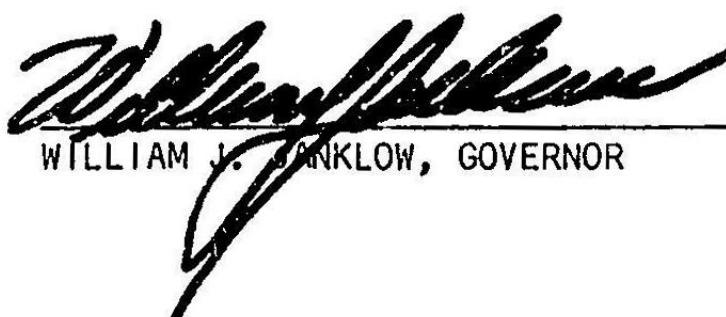

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that a descendant of the Gulbranson family call attention to this special commemoration to all the people of South Dakota so that the many blessings that have emanated from Our Savior Lutheran Church can be recognized by the people of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 14, 1980, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
